Public Art Project

The Town of Leonardtown is accepting proposals for a Public Art Project

The Town of Leonardtown's Arts and Entertainment District, in conjunction with the St. Mary's Arts Council, is seeking professional artists interested in creating a public work of art to be installed on the east side of Washington Street, adjacent to the new Town Office and the Leonardtown Arts Center. The winning proposal/artist will create a piece that is appropriately durable for an outdoor installation, interactive, engaging and fun for all ages and it can be abstract or representational.

The total project cost cannot exceed $10,000 and is to include all supplies, site visits, materials, site preparation, lighting, installation and artist fees. The Maryland State Arts Council is offering this matching grant.

The application deadline is Monday, September 26, 2016.
